

SHERRONE BLAKE LOBBAN

FOUNDER | BUSINESS STRATEGIST | LEADERSHIP EXPERT

PMP, MA (ECON)

Sherrone Blake Lobban is a global strategist, former UN diplomat, and leadership expert. She helps executives and organizations master strategic transformation and complex change. With a distinguished career in international diplomacy and corporate strategy, Sherrone delivers high-impact keynotes and executive training sessions that drive results.

Throughout her career, Sherrone has been recognized for her entrepreneurial achievements and voluntary activities, including being named a Caribbean "Smart and Savvy Entrepreneur;" Woman of Impact, for leadership acumen in the Okanagan, BC and 40 over 40 leadership nominee, Kelowna Chamber of Commerce, BC (to be announced in June 2025). Currently, she is the co-founder of Markiblak Group Inc., which operates the GrowRXL brand, both registered in Canada. Sherrone continues to make an impact as a leadership thought leader globally.

Notable corporate accomplishments include:

- Founding the Project Management Global Institute (PMGI) and bootstrapping it into an award-winning, multi-million-dollar company.
- Founding LearnFest Caribbean and the Institute's Strategic Leadership Program, including the Women in Leadership certificate.
- Serving as a United Nations diplomat on high-stakes missions, negotiating complex humanitarian and political issues that have saved millions of lives and mitigated crises.
- Becoming the youngest and first person of African descent to be selected for the United Nations panel of experts.
- Recognized for helping businesses scale in Canada (i.e. Woman of Impact awardee)

Sherrone holds a master's degree in International Development and Administration; and professional training in Leadership from Harvard, and Strategic Management from Wharton. She is also a certified project management professional (PMP) since 2010.